ASIAN Champs 2005 - China

There is no doubt that China is one of the most exciting destinations in the World today.

International 470 has been the natural choice of Asian Sailing for many years.

Another 35 new 470's are about to be delivered to China and there is a huge build up of excitement towards the 2008 Olympic Regatta in Qingdao and the 2006 470 Worlds in Rizhao.

The 2005 Asian 470 Championships were held in ShiShi with good racing and tight competition but China showed it's dominance.

The regatta was a great start to an exciting project for Asia and Int 470.

Regional Championships are the ideal breeding ground for tomorrow's Champions and give emerging Nations a stepping stone to World Championships..

Thanks goes to the

It is hoped that the Asian 470 Powerhouses of Japan and Korea will join in next year along with 470 members like the Philippines, Malaysia and Myanmar.

Chinese Yachting Association for their assistance in the organisation..

See you all again in Rizhao 2006 for the Worlds.

OK ?!

TWO Champions but ONE Title !!

Sundby Versus Bekatorou

What a delight for sailing enthusiasts.. Both Gold Medallists, both ISAF Sailors of the Year and Multiple World Champions of their Class.

This will be a battle to watch leading up to Beijing 2008. Sundby Said of her first 470 regatta in Palma... "So far I have really enjoyed sailing 470s... It was harder than I expected, Anyway I am happy to take new challenges... And I am looking forward to fight Bekatorou for sure "

But there are PLENTY of other great Women 470 Skippers that will be looking to knock them both off in the next 4 years.

The Video Clips from Hyeres this year were a great innovation and the first 2 days highlights were a terrific advertisement for International 470, while other classes sat on the beach the 470's ripped around in the 30 knot conditions.

In the Men's fleet there were some familiar names at the front end of the fleet and the Spring

Cup Champions BRASLAVETS & MATVIENKO (UKR) led the Fleet for most of the week before loosing 1st place on the last day to the Israeli veterans Klinger and Gal. The Bonnaud Brothers were looking to back up their Hyeres win of 2004 and failed by just 2 points.

The final results show how close the regatta was with just 5 points separating 3rd place from 9th place. For Israel it's a great start to the 2008 Quad with a 1st in the Men's and a 2nd in Women's Fleets.

Ingrid PETITJEAN & Nadege DOUROUX took out their home Olympic Classes regatta with a clear advantage in all conditions. The next 3 boats from AUT, ISR and ESP battled it out for the minor places. VOGL of Austria was as high as 2nd but had to settle for 4th in the end Siren Sunby had a good start to the regatta but fell away while gaining experience.

The Proposed 3 boat "Grand Final" failed to happen due to the light wind conditions.. The whole "Grand Final" format has the whole sport divided on it's merits. We will watch and learn.

Spring Cup 2005 Toulon France

Great Competition again at the French Association's Spring Cup now in it's 30th Year.. and a great lead into Hyeres.. The 1996 Gold Medal Ukrainian pair showing they still have what it takes.

XXX INTERNATIONAL SPRING CUP Toulon (France) - 16-21 April 2005 49 Entries - 9 Nations

New Format Trial at Medemblik

In cooperation with ISAF, 470 Internationale is working with organisers of the Holland Regatta in Medemblik to trial a new regatta Sprint Final. After the normal Fleet Racing, the top 6 boats in the Men's and Women's Fleet will go through to this final. Then with a race time target of 15 minutes.. There will be a system of Semi Finals and Followed by a Grand Final Series on the last day

It will be interesting to see how it all works..

We will then decide if this Format is suitable for the Olympics

Junior Worlds '05 Strelna Yacht Club Sankt Petersburg - Russia

The venue for the 470 Junior World Championships has been changed to St. Petersburg.
From 22 July 2nd August

Junior sailors will compete at the St. Petersburg Strelna Yacht Club (near the National Congress Palace and Petrodvorets, the south coast of the Neva Bay).

A record turnout last year of almost 130 teams from nearly 25 nations celebrated the 470 Junior World Championship 2004 held in Riva del Garda, Italy. Croatia's Ante CESIC and Ante KUJUNDZIC, recent winners in the ISAF Grade 3 Split Olympic Sailing Week, took the title and the top three finishers from 2004 are now all to be found in the higher reaches of the ISAF World Sailing Rankings. This year with the Junior European Championships just over a week earlier being held in Tallin, just 350 kilometres away, the Junior World Championship is expected to be bigger than ever.

Notice of Race, accommodation and travel details will be posted on www.470.org.
